Students from non-European Union countries: It is mandatory for international students who are not covered by the Spanish Social Security National Health Care System, bring an insurance policy from their home country which covers illness, hospitalization, accidents, civil liability, and repatriation for the entire length of time to be spent at the University.

Living in Madrid

Madrid, the capital of Spain, is a cosmopolitan city with more than four million inhabitants. It is the site of Spanish government and is the most important financial and cultural center in the country. The cultural, leisure and sports offering is rich and varied. It has countless theaters and museums, such as the "El Prado" National Museum, the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum and the Queen Sofia Center for the Arts (<https://www.turismomadrid.es/en/>).

Arrival in Madrid: The Adolfo Suárez Madrid-Barajas Airport is located some 12 kms away. There is access to the city by bus, metro or taxi.

Transportation Network: The "Metro" is the quickest way to reach any part of the city (<https://www.metromadrid.es/en/>), although Madrid also has a wide network of buses (<https://www.emtmadrid.es/Home>).

Climate: Madrid has a continental Mediterranean climate. Winters are cold, with temperatures below 6° C, frost at night and occasional snow. Summers are hot with average temperatures around 24°C in July and August, with highs that sometimes exceed 35°C.
